

BIO: The Rev. Dr. Lisa Barrowclough

The Rev. Dr. Lisa Barrowclough is the Chaplain at Beauvoir, the National Cathedral Elementary School and the Dean of Chaplains for the Diocese of Washington. Lisa was ordained Deacon and Priest in 1999 in the Diocese of Edmonton (Anglican Church of Canada), and she moved to the Episcopal Church (U.S.A.) in 2003 to serve in Episcopal Schools as a chaplain. She has served in the Dioceses of Southwest Florida, Southeast Florida, and Georgia, and she also does a lot of work for the National Association of Episcopal Schools. Since completing her Doctor of Ministry (Educational Leadership) degree in 2009, Lisa has also served as an Affiliated Faculty member at Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria, VA. When not engaged in ministry, Lisa enjoys cooking, swimming, reading, and fussing over her dogs, Lady and Ben.
